Untitled by Judy Anne

I.

Tree branches
glisten white
Pillows of snow
Sun reflecting
tiny crystals of light
frozen in stillness

II.

Snow melts
beneath
a steady drizzle
Rivulets run down the street Cars splash by sending muddy water
airborne

III.

Olive moss gleams
on greybrown bark
patches of snow
seen
through fog
dark grass
a hint of green

IV.

Bright blue sky
splashes of clouds fly
on the edges
of a breeze
stark branches
with swelling nubbins
soon to be leaves
